1. Agreement

These terms apply to your use of TaskFlow at https://www.task-flow.lat, operated by Sovannarith. By creating an account or using the service you agree to them. If you do not agree, do not use the service.

2. The service

TaskFlow is a project and task management application: projects, tasks, milestones, comments, files, a Kanban board, a calendar, notifications, reports and role-based access control. Features may change over time.

3. Accounts

- An account is created by an administrator, or you register yourself and confirm your e-mail address with a one-time code.
- Give accurate information and keep it up to date. One account belongs to one person.
- Keep your password confidential. You are responsible for what happens under your account.
- Repeated failed sign-ins temporarily block further attempts, and you are signed out after a period of inactivity.

4. Acceptable use

You agree not to break the law, upload content you have no right to share, try to access data or functions you have not been given access to, guess other people’s passwords, or send automated or excessive traffic. Files you attach are limited in size (10 MB each).

5. Your content

You keep ownership of the projects, tasks, comments and files you add. You allow the service to store them and to show them to the people you share them with, according to project roles, so that the service can work.

6. Projects, tasks and roles

What you can do in a project depends on your project role (Project Manager, Team Leader, Team Member or Viewer) and on the permissions your administrator has set. A completed project or task is closed: it accepts no new tasks, comments, files or time entries.

7. Availability

The service is provided on third-party hosting and may be slow, interrupted or unavailable at times. We do not promise it will be uninterrupted or error-free, and we may change or stop parts of it.

8. Suspension and ending your account

You can stop using the service at any time and ask us to delete your account. An administrator can deactivate, suspend or delete an account; a suspended or deactivated account cannot sign in.

9. Disclaimer and liability

The service is provided “as is”, without promises beyond those the law requires.

10. Changes to these terms

When the text changes in substance, the date above is updated.
